Who says that all the sharks should have a ferocious soul? That's definitely not the case of our dear Mr Holder! Feeling a little miserable because of its incapacity of swimming he asked Studio job to use their superpowers to transform him into a lifestyle object and be everywhere...far away from the sea and near to you! Killer is a shark form holder that can be used as an umbrella stand, a paper basket, a champagne cooler, or any other use in the home and beyond. Available in a metal finished version to make it glow in your entrance hall! Suitable for indoor use only.
